

I fully endorse this petition.

It is the most sensible of all the petitions that have been submitted relating to the Morse Code requirement. In these days of less government intervention, it is important that we amateurs have a say in the future of our spectrum.

Bottom line: We don't want another Citizens Band.